EXONERATION AGREEMENT COVID-19

The participants will travel to the UK after taking the relevant PCR test which needs to be done 42 hours before their trip and must be carried out at their own expense .

Choices International, S.L. will not be held responsible for any COVID-19 infection that may occur in the country of destination, and the displaced participant must respect the safety and prevention rules established in each of the country and their health authorities.

If the participant becomes infected and it is necessary to isolate and quarantine him/her, they must comply strictly with the health regulations established in the country of destination, and Choices International Ltd. shall not be held responsible for any failure to fulfil these regulations.

Choices International, S.L. expressly obey all the health regulations established by the health authorities in UK, therefore, is exonerated of any responsibility derived from a possible and unlikely contagion of COVID-19 by my son/daughter.

Therefore, I assume responsibility for the decision outlined in this settlement.

In proof of agreement with what has been stated above, I sign this agreement.
